Winter Wonderland Festival and Annual General Meeting

Over 50 people came to our Annual General Meeting this year.

It was a fantastic event.

All of the board stood to be directors for another year. Everyone said that they do a good job.

Robert and Vicky delivered a great presentation about all the work Connect in the North has done in 2023-2024.

After a tasty buffet everyone was entertained by the talented Dramarama who performed Joseph.

There was also a quiz, raffle, bingo and jokes.

Look on Connect in the North's Facebook page and website for lots more pictures like this.

Race Equalities Foundation – Annual Health Checks

Jahan and Mu'minah from the Race Equality Foundation ran training about Annual Health Checks.

We learnt how important it is that people with learning disabilities from minority ethnic communities have their health checks. It is a way that we can stay healthy and live longer.

You can find out more by watching a film that Nicholas from Rooots is in.

Use the QR code below to watch the film.

Train the Trainers

Starting on Thursday 9th January 1pm-3pm Tania is running a free course for people with learning disabilities who want be trainers.

Ring Sarah or email sarah@citn.org.uk to book on.

Let's Talk About Faith

The Rooots Team have got some money from the Wharfedale Foundation to make a film about faith.

Rooots want to interview people with learning disabilities who are Muslim, Sikh, Christian, Hindu or Jewish.

The film will show what faith means to people with learning disabilities. It will be shown to groups across the city.

Participants will get a voucher for taking part. Ring Sarah 0113 270 32 33 to find out more.

The Great Winter Chat
